

MAGIC DYE SOAP FLAKES

They dye and clean without rubbing, boiling, streaking or spotting

THE SERVICE & QUALITY STORE

The Kahl Drug Company

DRUGS & JEWELRY

PHONE 58

→ FREE DELIVERY ←

Local Brevities

T. E. Pollock was in Ash Fork on Monday on business.

Dr. R. O. Raymond was in Ash Fork Saturday looking after his sheep interests.

H. L. Truswell is now with the U. S. Forest Service, employed as fire patrol. Harry uses a motorcycle and side-car for his work.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Morton, of Gallup, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Pollock over Sunday. Dr. Morton is a brother of Mrs. Pollock.

They tell of Henry Aphold that he has recently become quite interested in those who can with authority tell him what to expect in the future.

Deputy Sheriff Charlie Mason has been afflicted with a very bad cold for several days and was forced to go about his work with his throat bandaged.

A party autoing to Lake Mary on Sunday was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Nelson, Mr. Robinson, Mr. A. Vandervil and Miss Agnes Kahn. The party had a very pleasant day, and while at the lake enjoyed a motor boat ride.

F. A. Dennis was a visitor in Flagstaff for a few days the first of the week from Miami. Mr. Dennis returned Monday taking his two sons with him. He is employed by one of the big mining companies and brought up a few very handsome specimens of their product.

R. E. Taylor and family have moved to their ranch for the summer. Since Mr. Taylor's place is only a mile and a half out the move will not necessitate his giving up his work in town at the furniture store, but will give him a chance, as he says, to have chickens, and a cow, and something to eat that didn't grow in a can.

William Nagiller, of Williams, was in Flagstaff Saturday.

Paints, Hardware, and Farming Implements at cost. C. A. Black.

T. E. Pollock got back the middle of the week from a short visit to Kingman and Phoenix.

Senator and Mrs. Henry F. Ashurst have been visiting old friends in Flagstaff the past few days.

Ed Collins, the stockman, was in Flagstaff the first of the week from his ranch in the Verde country.

Mrs. G. C. Phillips and Mrs. W. D. Drain spent several days in Williams this week with friends, coming back by auto on Wednesday.

W. R. Robinson, of Phoenix, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Oscar Nelson for a few days, left yesterday for Rocky Ford, Colo., on business.

Miss Walters, of Flagstaff, has been visiting Mrs. M. A. Scott this week at the Hotel Holbrook. They went out to the Petrified Forest Tuesday to view the wonders of that national curiosity.—Holbrook Tribune.

Misses Milly Lee and Miss Myrtle Foster left yesterday morning for their homes. Miss Foster will spend her vacation with her parents at Cooley, and Miss Lee at her home in Holbrook. Both will return to the Normal this fall.

Charles Spencer, who has for a number of years been promoting one of the biggest water development projects in the mountains, returned last week from Chicago, where he has been for the past few months on business connected with his development company.

Soldier Earl Hoffman got home to Flagstaff last Wednesday from a term of enlistment of over a year. Mr. Hoffman is a California boy, but enlisted from Flagstaff, where he is widely known from his work here in the Western Union Telegraph office.

Paints, Hardware, and Farming Implements at cost. C. A. Black.

John Zalaha was expected back yesterday from a business trip over to Phoenix.

Frank Brooks had an all-day auto ride Sunday that took him to his big ranch, to Fred Garing's place, and to Riordan.

C. A. Keregeris was at home from Winslow over Sunday with his family and expects to move them to Winslow soon.

The little 18-months-old baby of Section Foreman Albert Renois, of Sunshine, died last Saturday of acute indigestion.

"Money spent here is invested in your town; spent elsewhere, it builds up somebody else's town."—Flagstaff Lumber Co.

William Goddard and wife of Camp Verde were in Flagstaff the first of the week. They brought Mrs. Lester Gray, who had been visiting them back home with them.

"Sandy" Donohue has been having a serious time with rheumatism the past month, which settled in his knee. He hopes to work it out though he has not been very successful so far.

"Better not spend too much time looking over the automobile catalogs until you have selected the house plans. When the house has been built you'll know where is the handiest place for the garage."—Flagstaff Lumber Co.

Father E. Gerard, of the Mercy Hospital at Prescott, has been the guest of Father Vabra this week. Father Gerard is probably the oldest priest in point of service in Arizona, first coming to Arizona in 1876, and locating at Tucson.

Miss Anna May Tillman, who has been attending the Normal, left yesterday morning for El Paso, where she will visit her father a short time before going to Waco to spend the balance of the vacation. She will return for the summer term.

P. D. Berry was in from Grand Canyon this week, where he has been arranging for a crop on the Ralph Berry homestead. He expects to remain in Arizona a greater part of the summer. Mrs. Berry has returned to their California home.

After a week's stay in town Harry Bowen left last Saturday with W. S. Beard for his work at Richardson's Trading Post on the Little Colorado river. Bowen said he did not expect to get back to town again until the Elks put on their Fourth of July celebration.

The Orpheum theatre should be proud of its new violinist, Mr. Maximin, and the patrons of the show-house are surely delighted with his playing. It is not often that a town this size gets a violinist who has both the mechanical ability and the power to create the tones to the degree that Mr. Maximin has.

Judge George Hance, who has been attending to the business affairs of the estate of his brother, the late Capt. John Hance, desires to express his great appreciation to the people who were so kind and considerate of his brother and wishes them to know that he always has and always will have a very warm spot in his heart for them.

While Cattle Inspector Ed Hamilton of Williams was in town the first of the week he appointed R. L. Neill, our town marshal, deputy live-stock inspector for this district. Mr. Neill's appointment will save many telephone messages to Williams, and trips between the two places. He will look after Flagstaff and vicinity.

John Sheehan can be seen these days perched behind the steering wheel of the county's new auto truck chauffeuring supplies to the road gangs in different parts of the county. This week he has been looking after the wants of George Hulsey's gang on the Winslow road. They have finished the work there and are now moving to the road to the Canyon.

"Uncle Tom" Brown and Mrs. Brown returned to Flagstaff the latter part of last week by auto. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have been spending the winter south where Brown's sheep have been wintering. They will soon be "at home" again at their headquarters ranch at Marshall Lake; the sheep are moving north now and will be on their summer range the latter part of this month.

Friends who have been visiting former Sheriff Billy Dickinson, down on his cow ranch, claim that he is seriously contemplating trading off his cows for hogs, not so much on account of the difference in the profits of the business, but because he thinks he could handle them better on horseback. Billy can still ride a horse, but it tires the horse very much more than it used to years ago.

V. A. Kieth, of Keith Bros., Winslow oil magnates, spent the last week end in town, coming from Phoenix. He found a great many people down there highly interested in Arizona oil development, particularly state officials, who realized that a considerable amount of money is going from this state to the Texas oil fields and who wanted to find and turn Arizona money in the direction of any oil field in our own state.

W. H. Power has received word from his son Lester saying that he had about recovered from the results of a broken leg and will soon be able to remove the splints. Lester and a number of other sailors fell some 20 feet to the ice when a gang plank upon which they were going ashore broke. He expected to be taken from Vladivostok some three thousand miles or more across country with an escort of soldiers, to another hospital along with a number of other boys sick or injured.

D. A. Duncan, in charge of the local navy recruiting station, has purchased a Dodge roadster for his personal use and also for the use of the office. It will enable the officers to take trips to all the surrounding towns and country, seeing men who are interested in the service, but for many reasons unable or not sufficiently interested to make the trip to Flagstaff. The use of the car in this way ought to bring in recruits that would otherwise not be reached and also save a lot of expense for the office and the public.

"The Home is a safe haven in every storm."—Flagstaff Lumber Co. Ira Brown, state sheep inspector, is in Flagstaff this week.

David Babbitt, sr., is back in town after a business trip to Phoenix, coming home overland.

John G. Verkamp returned yesterday morning from Phoenix, where he had been for several days on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Doxon Fagerberg, of Prescott, were visitors in Flagstaff and Lake Mary for a few days last week.

Clerk of the Superior Court Tom Rees got back Sunday from Phoenix, where he was called as witness in the Newman trial.

J. W. Dorman, the Forest Service scaler, was in Flagstaff a couple days last week from Riordan, where he is located at present.

"Sandy" Donohue, chief night watchman at the McGonigle Lumber Co. mill at Riordan, was visiting old friends here over Sunday.

"Ownership is the philosopher's stone that can transmute mere wood and brick and stone into a home."—Flagstaff Lumber Co.

Corp. Harry Hibben left last week for Needles on a short visit to his brothers, Denny and Stacy, before settling down to business again.

Dr. Tom Manning was called to Williams yesterday to investigate a case of smallpox. It is understood that it is a mild case and that there is only the one case there.

The $20.00 recently offered to Normal students by Father C. Fabre for the best composition in French, was won by Charles Pierce. Miss Edith James won the second prize.

It is announced that Mrs. Nettie Woodson will have charge of Campbell Hall at the Normal school during the vacation which will close with the opening of summer session in June.

Miss Anna Mae Tillman, who broke her foot in the excitement at the girls' dormitory of the Normal when the recent false fire alarm was turned in, is very much improved and able to get about.

J. H. Crawford has been fortunate enough to get the services of a competent meat cutter for his market, Mr. George Faber. Mr. Faber comes from Albuquerque, where he was in the same line of business.

Colin Campbell, the sheepman, was in Flagstaff from Ash Fork Saturday. Mr. Campbell says the prospect for a good summer on the sheep range in that section of the country was never better than this spring.

Frank Brooks has secured an expert for his bottling works in the person of C. S. Shellabarger of Los Angeles. Mr. Shellabarger is an old hand at the business and in addition is a piano tuner. His family will follow him here shortly.

Sergeant R. C. Cresswell, jr., and Bert Kleindienst, of Winslow, were in Flagstaff Monday, the guests of Herman Kahl and other friends. Sergt. Cresswell is a son of Supervisor Cresswell of Navajo county and just recently discharged from the army.

Mr. Arnold, representative of Warren Bros., paving contractors of Phoenix, was in town the early part of the week, and attended the meeting of the city council Monday night. He offered to assist in any way he could the pushing of the paving on the Old Trails highway.

John Pollard, the expert sheep shearer, returned last week from the Kingman country, where he has been handling the shearing of some 30,000 head of sheep for the Hudspeeth Sheep Co. He says there were only a few sheep yet to be sheared there and will leave in a few days for Montana to help bring in the clip in that country.

Division Superintendent R. H. Tuttle advises us that he recently received a letter from E. H. Duffield, saying that he was in a military hospital at Camp Grant, near Chicago, and expected to be home some time next month. Mr. Duffield had a severe case of influenza from which he is recovering, and came very close to having pneumonia.

The west window of C. A. Black's store contains some samples of the work of Emerson school boys in the manual training department, and they are remarkable in the quality of the workmanship. Desks, tables, book-cases and other articles in the window look as if they would find a place in the stock of any furniture store, and the boys deserve lots of credit.

Judge J. E. Jones went to Kingman Wednesday to try cases for Judge Bollinger in which he was disqualified. It is understood that the cases have to do with the confiscation of automobiles which were taken from parties arrested while transporting liquor contrary to law. The owners of the automobiles have nothing to do with the charge of illegally transporting liquor and do not believe the law confiscating them is constitutional.

FOR SALE

One hundred and eighty-six cows and horses are offered for sale by C. R. McMullen and J. D. Faught, owners, headquarters at Ideal hotel, phone 162. This stock consists of the following: 25 head of A-No. 1 good family milk cows—Holsteins, Jerseys and Guernseys—all young and giving lots of milk, some with calves by their side; 1 registered Holstein bull; 50 head of cow horses, weight from 900 to 1,050 pounds, 5 to 7 years old; 60 head of large draft loggers and skidder horses, weight from 1,600 to 2,000 pounds each, 4 to 7 years old; 30 head of farm and brood mares, 4 to 8 years old, weight from 1,300 to 1,600 pounds; 20 head of mules, suitable for all purposes, weighing from 1,000 to 1,400 pounds, ages from 5 to 7 years. All of the above-mentioned horses and mules are sound and well broke, and ready to go right into hard work. They are extra good and well put up, blocky built, with extra good foot, and heavy bone. Never before has anyone in this country had a chance to buy this kind of stock. They are the very best that can be found in any country. Do not fail to come and look them over, if you are in the market for good milk cows, horses and mules. See them at Babbitt Bros. Corrals.

Paints, Hardware, and Farming Implements at cost. C. A. Black.

U. J. Lewis, chief compounder of medicines at the Kahl Drug Co., left Wednesday for Los Angeles on a short business visit.

Mr. Bert Hasket, inspector of the U. S. B. A. L., is in Flagstaff from the south this week. He soon expects to move back home for the winter.

Mrs. Percival Lowell, who had been spending a few days here on business matters connected with the Lowell observatory, left Monday evening for Boston.

Miss Lenore Francis, superintendent of schools, plans to open the new Fort Valley school on the 19th of May, in the room offered by Mr. Pearson of the Experiment Station. Seats for the school will be procured in Williams.

Enlistments at the local recruiting office continue each week. John Dero Myers of Phoenix being accepted the first of the week. He was sent to Hampton Roads, Va., for training in the machinists' school.

Sheriff Jack Harrington got back the first of the week from Phoenix, where he had been attending the Newman trial. Before going to Phoenix he was in Florence turning over some sentenced prisoners from this county.

G. C. Bassett, in charge of government stock on the Navajo Indian reservation at Kabeto, came in the first of the week. Mr. Bassett says the Indians are making strenuous objection to the killing of their diseased horses by government agents.

W. M. Wilson, the blacksmith, is back at his old stand again on Railroad avenue after spending the winter working on his mine in the southern part of the state. Mr. Wilson has a shaft down 304 feet and has a large body of good paying ore.

Judge George W. Hance, of Camp Verde, was in Flagstaff a few days the past week looking after the estate of his brother, the late Capt. John Hance. There are few better posted men in the Southwest than Judge Hance on the pioneer history of this section of the country and he enjoyed meeting with his many old-time friends here.

Some changes have taken place in the personnel of the Style Shop. Mrs. Oscar Nelson has purchased the interest of Miss Agnes Johnson and is now the sole proprietor of the shop. Miss Agnes Kahn, a normal student, has been engaged to help in the shop during the vacation. Miss Kahn already has many friends among the buying public, made when she was with Burm & Ramsey in the Confection Den.

Mrs. E. Lennon has returned home after a stay in California and says she is very glad to get back to Arizona once more.

Geo. F. Campbell, the sheepman, came up from the south yesterday. His sheep are on the way to the summer range.

Mrs. Charles Isham and two children returned Sunday from Phoenix, where they have been visiting Mrs. Isham's parents.

F. P. Cruise, assistant general freight and passenger agent for the Santa Fe in Arizona, was a visitor in Flagstaff Wednesday.

The music at the Army and Navy Club dance last evening in Marlar hall was furnished by Truswell's orchestra and pleased those present very much.

A party making the trip to the Canyon last Sunday was made up of the Misses Ruth Latimer, Mildred Hornbein and Alice Alton, and Messrs. Alfred Heckle and Henry Aphold.

Miss Emma Plump, A. A. Foster and family, made a trip to Lake Mary last Sunday, going mainly for the outing and having a great time, fishing a little during the day.

J. H. Crawford, Grover Jones, and their families, together with some other friends, made up a fishing party to Stoneman's Lake Sunday. They reported a good catch with the fish biting very freely, the men being kept busy baiting hooks while the ladies pulled them in.

John Snoberger, before joining the navy and since his return as assistant to Town Clerk Alex Johnston, has resigned that place and is to be known in the future as dispatching clerk at the local institution run by Uncle Sam and C. P. Heisser. His place will be filled by Joe Hanley, another ex-navy man.

On authority of a warrant issued in Winslow, Sheriff Jack Harrington met No. 1 yesterday morning and detained a man whose name was said to be F. T. Mattox, home unknown. Mr. Mattox was accompanied by a young lady who did not leave the train with him, but continued her journey to California.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Whiteside, of Hutchinson, Kans., spent Tuesday in Flagstaff, the guests of E. M. Brown. They were on their way home after a winter spent in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Whiteside and Mr. Brown are friends of long standing, but last Tuesday was the first time in fifteen years that they had had the opportunity of spending as much as a day with each other.

T. A. RIORDAN, President M. J. RIORDAN, Secretary
I. B. KOCH, Vice-Pres., Manager

ARIZONA Lumber & Timber Company

ESTABLISHED 1881

MANUFACTURERS OF

Native Pine Lumber, Props, Stulls.

Piling, Ties, Lagging, Boxes,
Lath, Shingles, Sash
and Doors

FLAGSTAFF

ARIZONA

TO DEALERS IN FRESH FRUITS:

Send us your name and address and we will place same on our price mailing list. Growers and shippers (by express) of fresh mountain fruits of all kinds.

Banning Fruit Company

BANNING, CALIFORNIA.

Throw away no more batches of bread but go to Brook's store and get some

OLD HOMESTEAD FLOUR

A car just received

We also have a supply NOW of splendid

Oat Hay and Oats

You'll like the prices

BROOK'S STORE Phone 81

A Suit
To Suit
The

Graduate

Our suits, tailored for you personally, are built to give satisfaction in every way.

Weave, cloth, style and fit will combine to please you.

